Spirit of Assisi

On October 27, 1986, Pope John Paul II invited the leaders of all the Christian denominations and well as the leaders of all the world religions to come to Assisi to pray for peace. At the close of the day

Pope John Paul II spoke, Here are a few brief quotes that give you a sense of what that day was about :

For the first time in history, we have come together from everywhere, Christian Churches and Ecclesial Communities, and World Religions, in this sacred place dedicated to Saint Francis, to witness before the world, each according to his own conviction, about the transcendent quality of peace.

Although prayer is in itself action, this does not excuse us from working for peace. Here we are acting as the heralds of the moral awareness of humanity as such, humanity that wants peace, needs peace.

There is no peace without a passionate love for peace. There is no peace without a relentless determination to achieve peace.

It was no accident that the Pope chose Assisi as the place to hold this event. This year marks the 25th anniversary of this momentous occasion. And thus being Franciscans and Franciscan-hearted people, we along with the entire St. Barbara Province, will be commemorating that special day. However we will not commemorate with a single event. Instead we have decided to celebrate the work for and achievement of peace for the entire month of October. More details to follow about the celebration. In the meantime, we are asking for help from the OLA community and those who hold the Franciscan Renewal Center close to their heart.

1. We are soliciting Peace Stories. Please share, in writing, a story of working for peace in a situation of conflict or a story of reconciliation achieved. These actions could have taken place in your family, in your local community or on a larger level. Please keep your story to 350 words and send to me at the email address below. We need them by mid- September.
2. During the month of October we are going to invite the community to create Peace prayer flags in the style of Buddhist prayer flags. We will need light cotton material to make the flags. If you have any material to donate, please bring to the Casa and leave at the front desk.

Look for more information on the Spirit of Assisi commemoration in upcoming bulletins.

Casa Grounds for Solidarity - Selling Fair Trade –Plus Coffee

Our next selling date is August 13-14, 2011

Dear Café Justo friends,
Café Justo coffee sales give hope in the face of desperation by providing a viable living wage. Café Justo is excellent coffee, but the taste is even more exquisite when you know that you are supporting Mexican families who were once in crisis. The word is beginning to spread; the movement is beginning to grow. Little by little, more churches and synagogues in the Southwest sell Café Justo coffee and provide hope for more people. Our goal is to support a single family for one entire year by selling 1200 pounds of coffee this year. Will you help us? Summer is certainly not the optimal time to be drinking a hot cup of coffee, but have it iced, or as a coffee sorbet. You'll not only be enjoying a cool and refreshing treat, you'll also feel good knowing that choosing Café Justo coffee over your regular brand means that one more family has overcome the horrific face of poverty. Share the news with your friends and family so that together we'll make a difference. For more information visit www.casagrounds.com —Casa Grounds Ministry team

A Note from the Rector....

Re-Registration

It's been 5 years since we have become a Conventual Church and during this time we have been growing in numbers. This is a great expression of faith and a gift to the church. However, due to our growing numbers we also are experiencing a challenge to update our sacramental information for our members. Since all sacramental records are kept at the church of baptism, I think it's helpful to have a current certificate on hand. Do yourself a favor and contact your church of baptism and request a new baptismal certificate that will indicate all the sacraments you have received. This will be beneficial in helping us to develop the information database that we are expected to maintain as a Conventual Church.

To do this we have developed a more detailed registration form. Initially, we are asking those families currently registered to update their information with these new forms. Then, in the future we will present this form to new people as they register in the church. This is quite an undertaking and will certainly require your cooperation and patience in the process. We are hoping that all church members will fill out a new registration form to bring us up to date. We will begin this process on Sunday August 21st .... registration forms will be on all the chairs at all the masses that weekend. After that, the forms will be available at the front desk and online as well. Your cooperation is greatly appreciated.

A Big Franciscan Thank-You!

The Franciscan Province of St. Barbara would like to thank you, the members of Our Lady of the Angels Church, for your amazing response to our appeal the weekend of June 24-25. This Trust is used to fund the care of our elderly friars and the education and formation of our friars in studies. May God bless you abundantly for your kindness and generous support!

Painting the Interior of the Church

Part of our annual budget this year was to paint the interior of the Church. A committee has been in place for several months and color choices have now been made. We will begin painting on Monday, August 8th and it will take approximately two weeks to complete the painting project.

Since our Church is a communal space used by many different groups, it was important to us to bring the shared wisdom of the various communities it serves to participate in the decision of color. Of course, to actually include the “entire community” would be impossible, since the community it serves is enormous – remember, the Church is used by many different groups, not just by the Sunday worshipping community. Acknowledging that personal tastes may differ, it was the intention of this committee to work diligently and charitably and allow the Holy Spirit to move us forward in a unified direction.

We extend our gratitude to the Church Paint Committee – made up of people from the worshipping community, and members of the Casa staff and friars. (Surely you can imagine the sensitive and daunting task that this would be for any committee!)

We hope that you will like our choices .... and appreciate the committee's thoroughness and dedication in trying to choose beautiful and appropriate colors.

Thank you for your patience in this process!

Over the past two years, 20 Casa employees and friars have attended the Survival School at the FRC. Each year the staff continually participates in personal development and growth. Over the past 12 years fifteen staff members have attended the Assisi Pilgrimage (underwritten by Father Joe Schwab's stipends). At the Casa, we truly believe in developing our people which is in complete alignment with our mission/vision and values.

Survival School Reflection

When was the last time you took a good look at yourself as a leader? I don't necessarily mean leader in the management sense of the word. A leader comes in many different forms; the way you parent, the way you conduct yourself in a ministerial group, the way you conduct yourself at your job. I recently attended an eye-opening program at the Franciscan Renewal Center called Survival School. It taught me that not all great leaders are managers, and vice-versa.

The curriculum of Survival School is managing leadership successfully. This intense week-long seminar takes you through many aspects of leadership training, such as Principle-Centered Leadership, Team Building and Conflict Management. A great analogy we were told to use over and over during the course of our week was to pick up a looking glass to look at how others lead, then turn it around on ourselves, as if it were a mirror, to examine how we lead. There was a lot of self discovery and personal growth in Survival School. I have a better understanding of what it means to be a leader in every aspect of my life.

I would highly recommend this course to anyone. As I mentioned, Survival School is not only for people who have a full time job, or for those who work for a church. It's for people with the desire to make positive changes in their lives. I feel blessed that the Franciscan Renewal Center allows staff to attend programs like this.

If you are interested in attending Survival School, please contact our Programs Department. The next course is scheduled January 23-27, 2012.

"The Feast of St. Clare of Assisi"

Thursday, August 11, 2011 at 7:00 p.m. in the Church.

At the age of eighteen, Clare left her wealthy noble family to follow a life of contemplation and simplicity inspired by the preaching of Francis of Assisi, establishing an enclosed order for women -- the Poor Clares.

Among the authentic writings of Clare we have her Testament and four letters to her friend Agnes of Prague. Although Clare would be the first to emphasize that her way of life grew out of her association with Francis, scholars today are also examining her life in its own right. Her religious life is being recovered as a model of love, penance, and perseverance for women today.

Among the many notable attributes reflected in Clare's life, two stand out. The first was her unrelenting commitment to a life of utter poverty. She engaged in a lengthy contest with Church authorities who thought that such a radical, counter-cultural way of life was neither realistic nor feasible. Such a commitment witnessed to inner personal strength and confidence in her ability to uphold the poverty embraced by Francis, in its most radical form. A second attribute was Clare's humility. Perhaps only a woman of such personal strength and commitment was able to speak of herself genuinely as an "unworthy" and "useless" servant of the Poor Ladies. The "hidden sweetness" of God's love for her in Christ enabled her to focus on others rather than herself. She not only recognized, but was awed by the gifts and virtues of other persons and the beauty of every created thing.

Certainly she is someone deserving of a great celebration of her gift to the world.

Please come and celebrate her life and inspiration in this beautiful festive liturgy!
