God of peace, God of mercy
 We pray for the people of Ukraine:
 we lament the violence that has come upon their country. Comfort those who mourn and offer hope for those who despair; and compassion for all who suffer. We plead for an end to violence and aggression in their land.

We pray for those who are fleeing their homeland
 that they be granted a haven as their neighbors
 open their hearts and homes and welcome refugees.
 We pray for the people of Russia: We give thanks for those who protest for peace. And those compelled to commit acts of aggression against their neighbors. We pray for all who will suffer because of sanctions and war.

We pray for leaders around the world: we seek wisdom for those who are making life and death decisions about how to respond to violence and threats of violence.
 We ask for courage for those who campaign for or work for peace.

We pray for aid workers and journalists: we give thanks for those willing to be present in situations of war and unrest in order to meet the needs of others; we ask for safety, wisdom and compassion
 as they alleviate suffering and heal the wounded.
 We pray for journalists and media organizations
 reporting the situation in Ukraine and Russia,
 may they report truthfully and compassionately.

God of peace, God of mercy
 We pray for peace. Give us a desire to be “ambassadors of Christ” and have a willingness to work and hope and pray for peace each day. Amen

Gospel Reflection for Parents

“Hey, that’s not fair!” How many times have we heard this spoken in our family? Family members challenge one another’s generosity, operating from the perspective of limited resources. If we have given to one, perhaps there won’t be enough for the other. Jesus wants us to understand that this is not how it is with God’s mercy and forgiveness. God offers his love to all of us in abundance. The forgiveness of the father in the parable is an image of God’s love for us, generous beyond measure in his love for both of his sons. Can we truly believe that God acts this way towards us and accept his mercy without jealousy, knowing that God’s love for another does not diminish his love for us?

Are You Looking for Something Unique for Someone's Easter Basket?

The volunteers with Apache Fair Trade encourage you to explore the eBay store as a place to shop for Easter gifts. Due to the pandemic, the ministry has not been able to hold any sales at the FRC. Instead, the volunteers have been working to get craft items from San Carlos and White Mountain Apache crafters into the eBay store. In addition to jewelry, there are ornaments, hatbands, beaded pens, key chains and more. To find these items on eBay, click the link shorturl.at/fhGK5 or search for it on eBay. Look for the tag in the picture. Purchasing these gifts truly provides support and brings hope to our Apache brothers and sisters.

COMMUNITY CONNECTION

Hello everyone! My name is Victor Jaimes, and I am an incoming Co-Manager for Faith in Action Ministry at the Casa, working alongside Laura Libertore. I am a recent Villanova graduate, proud Saint Mary's (CA) alum, and former Jesuit Volunteer. As I like to tell many of my friends and co-workers, my whole adult life has revolved around collecting Catholic order badges. I collected my Carmelite badge after graduating from a Carmelite high school, Lasallian badge after graduating from Saint Mary's, Jesuit badge after completing my service with the Jesuit Volunteers, and my Augustinian badge after getting my master's in Theology & Political Science at Villanova!

Therefore, I would like to thank Charlie, Patti, Laura, and the rest of the staff here at the Casa for helping me expand my badge collection! Joking aside, I am thrilled to be a part of an amazing organization and getting to know everyone here at the FRC. With my extensive background in youth ministry, Hispanic ministry, and faith-based justice ministry, I hope to reignite the fire of justice within the hearts of those that we serve. In the words of St. Augustine, I also hope to challenge myself and others to "become what they are not yet."

Sharing in the Lasallian tradition, I leave you with these words:

Let Us Remember That We Are In The Holy Presence of God. Live Jesus
in Our Hearts Forever!

- Victor José Jaimes

CELEBRATING 70 YEARS IN THE VALLEY!

"The Casa might never have been able to become what it is now and has the potential to evolve into the future if it were not for those crazy, glorious, wild, and grace-filled years after Vatican II when the lay men and women of the Casa fell madly in love with God and in His divine light formed a rare and beautiful community in the aptly named Paradise Valley."
