PASTORAL REFLECTION

I would say that the 23rd psalm is the most familiar of the psalms. Who hasn't heard, "The Lord is my shepherd, there is nothing I shall want"? I have heard it at Sunday Masses and funerals. In case you didn't know, it's also the lyric to a rap song by Coolio called "Gangsta's Paradise," and if you have seen the movie Titanic, you can hear the psalm being shared by a priest as the ship goes down. These are just a couple of the contemporary uses of the psalm I have found, and it has become one of my favorites.

The psalm provides insight into the task of the Shepherd in the lives of the sheep. The Shepherd leads the sheep to the green grass, where the water flows. He offers us protection with his staff, and He never leads us to anything that would bring us harm. The only task that the sheep are asked to do is follow Him.

All I am given is one task, and sometimes that task seems difficult. There have been times when I have strayed or I get stuck in a bramble. He assures me that I am worthy of His grace, and He comes to bail me out. As the Lenten season comes to an end, I will make efforts to remember that my loving Shepherd is leading me to all that is good. All I need to do is follow the path that he leads me.

FAMILY FAITH FORMATION

Lenten Reflection: Man Born Blind

Have you ever played a game with a blindfold? Or, have you ever been on a trust walk, where you are blindfolded and led by another person?

Playing games with a blindfold helps us appreciate the gift of sight. Sight is a double blessing in a culture whose media manipulates visual contents, its patterns, and its timing. A quickly edited, fast moving commercial on television proves the point; your eyes quickly “read” the message.

Through the cure of a person born blind, John’s gospel presents sight in a metaphorical sense. Sometimes a person can look, but not see. Here, the blind man received not only the ability to use his eyes but the gift to see the truth.

COMMUNITY CONNECTION

My name is Diane Aruda. I am a Dominican Sister who ministers in Northern California. I was blessed this last September to enter into a privately directed month long spiritual retreat at The Casa. Cathy Olds, who coordinates spiritual direction here at The Casa, was my spiritual companion.

I came to retreat longing for silence, prayer and reflection. From the moment I stepped on these sacred grounds, I was welcomed with warmth, care and support. As the days unfolded, I experienced the beauty of community alive among you, From those who greet everyone in the front lobby to the dining room staff; from all who daily minister in the community to those who staff Casa Programs and those who care for the grounds and variety of rooms, all were attentive, and supportive. Joining the worshipping community was a delight and the Blessed Sacrament chapel, a holy space for prayer.

As I prepared to leave all of you, my heart was filled with gratitude for your kind and generous presence throughout the month. It was a joy to meet Christ among you and to be welcomed into your community so intent and focused on ministering to one another and to the world.

May you be blessed abundantly for the doing of God's work daily in service.
Thank you for your Welcoming Presence!

— Sr. Diane Aruda
