

But I'm Not A Scripture Scholar.....

or

Preparing for a Just Scripture Session

Each Just Scripture session focuses on the Scripture passages that will be read 2, 3 or 4 weeks ahead. A copy of the readings will be forwarded to people who have attended in the past and a handout copy will be shared with new comers. We will open with prayer and a reading of the Scriptures selected. Notes on the discussion will be compiled and forwarded to our Friars, Deacon and our Liturgists. They are offered as a reflection and insight into how God is speaking to the community through Scripture.

You do NOT have to think of yourself as a Scripture scholar to participate. We ask that you think of your participation as a divine reading and sharing intended to promote communion with God and a way to explore the depth of God's Word. We are not treating Scripture as texts to be studied, but as the Living Word. The focus of Just Scripture is not a theological analysis of biblical passages but viewing them with Jesus Christ's message of love, justice and charity as the key to their meaning and how that speaks to you today.
