PASTORAL REFLECTION

Good Shepherd Sunday! We celebrate Jesus' love for us that he knows us each by name and is willing to lay down his life for us. As his "sheep," we are called to trust him, knowing we are cared for and protected. This Sunday is also "Vocation Sunday." Although the emphasis of our prayers today is a call for priests and religious, we need to remember that every baptized person has a vocation. We are all called by God to play a specific role in the Christian and wider community. All of us share in Christ's priestly, prophetic, and kingly office in some way.

At the age of seven, I wanted to become a priest. I was heartbroken when my mom told me I couldn't be one! But Christ knew my desire and still had a role for me in the Church, working with people and families wanting to grow in faith.

This May will mark 14 years since I came on staff to create family programs where there were none before. I have been blessed to walk with many different people searching for Christ. I have been humbled by their stories of difficulties and also joys. I have watched the paschal mystery unfold around me time and time again. I am so thankful to each of you here at the Casa for having touched and blessed my life. As I move on to new adventures as a community member, not staff, know that you will be held in my heart and prayers always!

See you at Mass!

Mother's Day is coming up on May 14th

Mother's Day is in a few weeks, and we will remember and pray for our mothers who have given us life and love … for those who are with us as well as those who have left our sight and passed on. And we give thanks ... for just as a loving mother generously provides for her children, so too does God watch over us.

To help us recognize and honor our mothers, you are invited to email us photographs of your mothers … living or deceased … and we'll include them in a slideshow before the Mass. The cut-off is May 10 to email us the photo for the slideshow. Send to rosa@thecasa.org.

May we honor our Mothers always with a spirit of profound respect.

Catholic Home Missions Appeal Strengthening the Church at Home

This week, we are participating in the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. Right now, over 40 percent of dioceses in the U.S. are considered "home missions" because they are unable to fund essential pastoral work needed in their communities. Your support of this appeal helps ease the struggle of these dioceses. To make an online donation and/or get more information, please visit www.usccb.org/home-missions.

Reflecting on the Word as a Family

The shepherd described in today's Gospel is not like other shepherds; he is the Good Shepherd. He knows his sheep so well that he can thell them apart; he knows them each by name. The sheep have spent so much time with him that they know his voice. They recognize his voice over all other voices. This love between the Good Shepherd and his sheep is the model for all love. The Good Shepherd knows his sheep, wants them to be with him, and loves them so much he will die for them. These basic human needs to be known, wanted, and loved are universal to us all. The Good Shepherd is waiting to provide these things for us abundantly.

Discussing the Word as a Family

ON THE WAY TO MASS

I wonder what it feels like for the Good Shepherd to call you by name. I wonder what it feels like to be one of his sheep.

ON THE WAY HOME FROM MASS

Why do you think the sheep recognize the Good Shepherd's voice? Do you spend enough time with Jesus to recognize his voice?

Living the Word as a Family

Play a game of hide & seek with the seeker blindfolded and on their hands and knees. They will only able to seek out the family members who are hiding by hearing their voice. After everyone has been found, and everyone has a chance to be the seeker, talk about how your familiarity with each other and your voices led you to the family members you were seeking. Contemplate what God's voice sounds like.

We are new members compared to many who have been coming to the Casa over the last 70 years. I was transferred here in 2012, working for Metlife, commuting back and forth to Chicago as the family was still living there.

Needing a place to go to weekly Mass, I started to explore the different churches in the Valley. I felt comfortable in many of them. When I entered Our Lady of the Angels, it felt like coming home. We came from a wonderful parish back home that we were very involved in. We knew a new church might have big shoes to fill. The time had come for the family to plan a visit and join me at this wonderful place. Together we all felt right at home.

Our time here has provided many wonderful blessings. My wife became a Third Order Secular Franciscan through our church. Our son Michael met his wife, Keani, while participating in the 18-39 young adult group in 2017. They even got engaged on the grounds outside at The Guadalupe Shrine courtyard with a blessing from Father Sam.

We want to thank the Casa for the spiritual support it shares with all who enter. We are grateful for Our Lady of Angels Church and all the faith-filled masses supporting our Roman Catholic faith. I look forward to giving back in any way God leads my family to at this very special church and retreat center.
