The Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

RENEWAL

The Franciscan Renewal Center • A Community of the Franciscan Province of Saint Barbara

5802 East Lincoln Drive • Scottsdale, Arizona 85253 • Phone 480.948.7460 • thecasa.org

Dear Holy People of God, In the parable of the Sower and the Seed that we read this Sunday, Jesus compares the reception of the Word of God to different types of soil. Each soil represents a different disposition or state of the human heart and mind when it comes to receiving and responding to the teachings of God.

Reflecting on this parable, it is important for us to evaluate the condition of our hearts and minds. Are we open and receptive to the Word of God? Are we willing to let it take root and transform us? Are we actively cultivating an environment that allows the seed to grow and bear fruit?

Just as different soils require different care and attention for growth, each of us may need unique approaches to nourish our spiritual lives. We can engage in practices such as prayer, meditation, studying scripture, and participating in a community of believers to foster spiritual growth.

Ultimately, it is a lifelong journey to become good soil, and we may encounter various challenges along the way. However, by recognizing our differences and working on the condition of our hearts, we can create an environment where the seed of the Word of God can flourish, leading to a life that is deeply rooted in faith, love, and understanding.

May the Lord give you peace,

Father Vincent Nguyen, OFM
Vice-Rector

The 4th Annual Casa Creche Festival planning has begun! And, this is the 800th anniversary for Franciscans

This December, we'll be celebrating the 800th Anniversary of the Christmas experience of Sant Francis of Assisi in the little Italian village of Greccio – which started the tradition of setting up nativity scenes in our churches, towns, and homes. And, this will be the 4th Annual Casa Creche Festival!

Over the years, we've had hundreds of "creches" – or, nativity scenes – on display in our Community Life Center from many different cultures and traditions. This exciting collection of diverse and interesting nativity sets are on loan from members of the Casa community.

If you would like to be involved in the planning of this special and unique holiday experience, please email norbert@thecasa.org. This is such an important part of the Franciscan story – please consider helping us make it extra special this year!

Special Collection for the Black and Native American Missions - next week

Established in 1884, the Black and Indian Mission Office distributes these funds as diocesan grants, providing much needed assistance and resources to support the evangelization needs to our Black and Native American brothers and sisters in the United States.

The Apostles' Creed series - part 4 (of 5)

This five week series will break down the 12 articles of the Apostles Creed.

(Source material excerpted from catholicworldmission.org, contributed by Rev. John Trigilio, Jr. and Rev. Kenneth Brighenti.)

At its core, the Apostles' Creed is a profession of faith in God and His teachings, and it includes articles about each of the three persons of the Holy Trinity. This creed serves as a concise summary of Catholics' beliefs and the core aspects of the Scripture and God's teachings.

Article 7: He Will Come Again to Judge the Living and the Dead.

There will be a Second Coming of Jesus at the end of the world, known as Judgement Day, where all will be judged. We believe that there is an immediate judgment of a person upon their death, but that there is also a general judgment of all of creation at the Second Coming.

Article 8: I Believe in the Holy Spirit.

We acknowledge that God exists in three persons known as the Holy Trinity, consisting of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Each of these "persons" is distinct but equal in divinity to one another.

Article 9: The Holy Catholic Church, the Communion of Saints.

The Church is more than a mere institution, but rather an essential dimension of our spiritual lives; a way for us to celebrate the glory of God in community with other believers. This Church is not just here and now, but also a mystical bond ("a communion") that unites the living and the dead.

Reflecting on the Word

Throughout the New Testament, Jesus talked about the Kingdom of heaven through the use of parables. With this method of teaching, he used something from everyday life - a seed, a woman making bread, a pearl, a shepherd - and revealed truths about himself or the kingdom of heaven. When we ponder the truths in the parables and pray with them, something different might be revealed to us each time. For two thousand years, we have been pondering these parables and Jesus is still speaking to us through them.

Discussing the Word

ON THE WAY TO MASS...

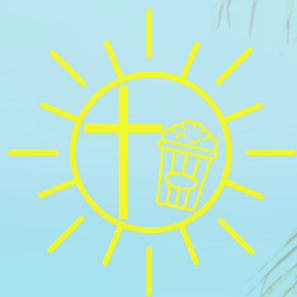

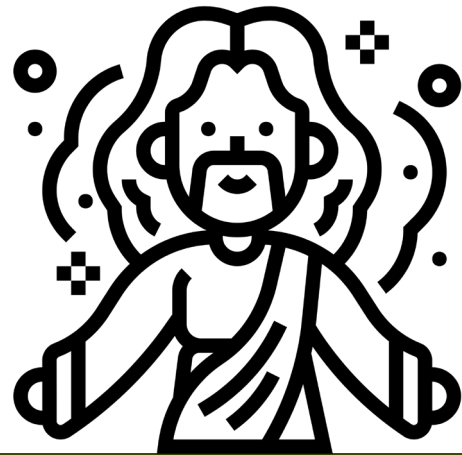

Why do you think Jesus taught in parables?

ON THE WAY HOME FROM MASS...

Parables are stories that teach a lesson. What lessons do you think Jesus wanted us to learn?

Living the Word

Some parables that are good for all ages are the parable of the mustard seed (Mark 4:30-32), the parable of the precious pearl (Matthew 13:45-46), and the parable of the found sheep (Luke 15:4-6). On different days this week, choose a parable to read and think about together. What is Jesus trying to reveal in this parable?

COMMUNITY CONNECTION

My name is Br. Kevin Hamzik OFM and I am originally from Cleveland, Ohio. I attended Padua Franciscan High School, where I first met the friars and began to learn about the lives of Sts. Francis and Clare. My vocational journey began in high school, where I went on mission trips through the school to the Dominican Republic. We helped build homes, playgrounds and run a baseball camp for children.

I attended St. Bonaventure University in Allegany, New York, and graduated with a degree in studio art. Over time I met more friars and began to learn about the Franciscan way of life. While there, I was also able to go on pilgrimage to Rome and Assisi, arranged by the school; soon after, I began to discern a vocation as a friar.

I entered the order right out of college and have been in it ever since. I am an artist whose main medium of work is oil painting. I work mainly in spiritual and religious works, channeling my Franciscan spirituality and life experiences into each painting in some way.

I believe that beauty can be found in all places and in all experiences in some way, which brings us closer to the divine love of God. I am currently in my third year of simple vows and getting ready to start my Master of Fine Arts degree at Columbia College in Chicago. My focus now is on learning more about retreat ministry, and I will be helping out the staff at the Casa over the summer.
