The Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

RENEWAL

The Franciscan Renewal Center • A Community of the Franciscan Province of Saint Barbara

5802 East Lincoln Drive • Scottsdale, Arizona 85253 • Phone 480.948.7460 • thecasa.org

In the Gospel, Jesus tells us that the Kingdom of Heaven is like a treasure buried in a field, which a person finds and hides again, and out of joy, goes and sells all that he has and buys that field. Jesus refers to the treasure, to where we know and experience that we belong to God, and that we are cherished and cared for. It is where we have committed ourselves to the noblest values of the human heart that feeds our hunger and quenches our thirst.

The Kingdom of Heaven excites us as a child is excited at Christmas or a bride on the morning of her wedding. It has the calming touch of a nursing mother, the joy of being with a good friend. The reign of God is the fulfillment of our deepest desires and hope. Nothing in the world can compare with it, and that is why we are willing to sacrifice everything to attain it.

The treasures that we find in our lives is really a gift that is given. It's not anything that we have earned in any way. It is given to us by God, and all we have to do is accept it.

The Feast of Our Lady of the Angels

Wednesday, August 2
Festive Liturgy at 6 pm

Come celebrate our feast in this festive liturgy! Learn more of our Franciscan heritage as we commemorate our namesake: “the Portiuncula” in Assisi.

Our Lady of the Angels of the Portiuncula

Saint Francis came to a place called the Portiuncula (the little portion) where there was an old church dedicated to the Mother of God, which had been abandoned with no one to look after it. This was a tiny chapel hidden away in the woods and marshes near Assisi. Francis had a great devotion to Mary and when he saw that the church was deserted, he began to live there constantly in order to repair it. It was heard that the angels often visited there, so it came to be known as Saint Mary of the Angels. Francis decided to stay there permanently out of reverence for the angels and love for the Mother of Christ. He loved this spot more than any other in the world. It was here that he began his religious life, and it was here that he died. This was the place where St. Francis founded the Order of Friars Minor. He often said to the friars, “See that you never abandon this place! If you are driven out of one door, re-enter by another, for this place is holy indeed; it is the dwelling place of Christ and His Mother.”

As we honor Our Lady of the Angels, may we find inspiration for our own growth and development in the gospel way of life that Francis embraced and lived so completely.

Reflecting on the Word

This week we are once again pondering the Kingdom of Heaven reflected upon by Jesus in parables. Today's parables reveals a different quality of God's Kingdom. A treasure buried in a field is so wonderful that once discovered, it brings much joy and changes the finder's whole life. A pearl that is so valuable that once found, it is worth all to the finder. Jesus told us these parables because he wants us to discover for ourselves how the Kingdom of Heaven is life changing for us!

Discussing the Word

ON THE WAY TO MASS...

Describe the Kingdom of Heaven in one or two of your own words.

ON THE WAY HOME FROM MASS...

Jesus compared the Kingdom of Heaven to treasure, fine pearls, a great catch of fish that will be sorted, and an inventory of old and new items. Think about the words you used to describe the Kingdom of Heaven on the way to Mass. Are they similar or different from Jesus' descriptions?

Living the Word

Read these five short parables about the Kingdom of Heaven, and discuss them as a family.

- Mark 4:30-32
- Matthew 13:45-46
- Matthew 13:33
- Matthew 13:44
- Mark 4:26-29

What is similar between them? What is different?

Two “in-person” days:

- Opening Reflection Day: Wed., September 13
- Immersion Day: Sat., October 14

How do we “bear witness” in mind, heart, body, and soul? As we address the needs of the world, in essence and in reality, how do we fully hear, lovingly support and deeply recognize the spiritual journeys, struggles, and joys of ourselves and others? In “class,” in large group, small group, and paired sharing conversations, the Engaging Spirituality program offers guidance in spiritual practices such as mindfulness, gratitude, and spiritual reading, journaling, and listening.

Registration and Fee: the program registration fee is $60 and includes classes, digital materials, the reflection and immersion days. Registration is required on the FRC portal. Also available in person or by calling the FRC Lobby Desk: 480.948.7460. Scholarships are available. Email es@thecasa.org with any questions or to inquire about a scholarship.

Books required for the course ($50) are paid for separately. An FRC overnight room is optional on Tuesday night, September 12 (and includes an additional fee of $120). All details are available on the informational flyer found on FIA LinkTree.

Approaching 10 Years: Evangelii Gaudium

Published on November 24, 2013, Evangelii Gaudium (or The Joy of the Gospel) is an apostolic exhortation by Pope Francis. He sought to address complacency in the Church, both within Church laity and hierarchy. He reminds us of our obligation to the poor and is critical of clericalism and over-centralization within the Church, as well as over-emphasis on doctrine. In this context, Pope Francis calls for a “pastoral conversion,” which includes pastoral creativity and empathy in church ministry.

Evangelii Gaudium set the stage for the Pope’s encyclical, Laudato Si’, a few years later. To this day, Evangelii Gaudium is an enlightening document that reminds us that church ministry is a collaborative effort, not a clerical one.

Visit FIA LinkTree for this information and sources.

COMMUNITY CONNECTION

Some people might wonder how the Franciscans distinguish themselves from other Catholic religious orders or diocesan priests. As with any religious order, Franciscans follow the spirit and ministry of their founders: St. Francis and St. Clare. Over the many centuries of religious and lay people living out and writing about their understanding of what it means to be Franciscan, a set of principles, values, and actions can be assembled. Most recently, the St. Barbara Province created a new set of characteristics as a guide for all the Ministries (organizations) in the Province. These characteristics offer staff, community members, and volunteers a framework for choosing not only what to do, but also the manner and spirit in which any action is taken.

The Five Characteristics of Franciscan Ministry are:

1. We follow the Gospel call to serve others.
2. We recognize the dignity of each individual.
3. We are peacemakers.
4. We honor the connectedness of all of creation.
5. We recognize the good.

As you can see, these Christian principles are not unique to Franciscans. But as a Franciscan community, we strive to put this set of principles directly into action. The current effort of Provincial leadership is to help our staff and volunteers ponder these characteristics to ensure that we are intentional in living these out in our day-to-day actions. For the Franciscan Renewal Center to fully embody its Franciscan identity, it takes all of us, Friars, community members, staff, and volunteers to contemplate and incorporate these principles into our lives. — Patti Sills-Trausch, Mission Integration Coordinator
