The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

RENEWAL

PASTORAL REFLECTION

Dear Holy People of God, On the hilltop of Golgotha that afternoon, a large crowd stood and looked at Jesus hanging on the cross. The other two criminals who were hung next to Jesus also looked at him. They all looked at the same sign, but each received different messages.

For the Roman soldiers, Jesus was an insane man. The Jewish leaders looked at him as an enemy who deserved to die. His followers looked at him as a failure. One of the crucified thieves next to him looked at him as a powerless man. In the midst of that big crowd, only one crucified thief recognized Jesus as King, and he received salvation at that very moment.

The crowd did not recognize Jesus as King because the king whom they expected had to satisfy their needs for power and material wealth. Yet, Jesus was the King of Love and Salvation. He was waiting to shower love and salvation to all who wanted to receive, but no one there wanted it. They stood next to the river of love, but their hearts remained dry because they did not want love.

Today, on the Solemnity of Christ, the King of the Universe, we are called to pause a moment and look at the crucified Christ, the King of Love. He is still pouring out Love and Salvation like rainfall. Do we want to receive those graces from Him?

May the Lord give you peace,

Fr. Vincent Nguyen, OFM

Special Collection This Week Catholic Campaign for Human Development

This weekend, we are participating in the collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD), the national anti-poverty program of the U.S. Catholic Bishops. Central to the CCHD is the belief that those who are directly affected by unjust systems and structures have the best insight into knowing how to change them. The CCHD is dedicated to breaking the cycle of poverty by helping low-income people participate in decisions that affect their lives, families and communities. CCHD offers a hand up, not a handout. Thanksgiving Day Mass Thur., November 24, 2022 ~ 10 am

For what we have received from God's bounty, we return to the Lord with gratitude! Join in this festive liturgy where the community gives thanks together. We invite you to bring food for the poor to Mass on this day – this invitation is always open. But on this day, (even though the food will not reach the needy in time for Thanksgiving dinner), it will visibly connect this holiday to our service of the poor and can help to replenish the shelves of local food distribution programs after Thanksgiving. Many people bring canned or dry food to Mass for the poor each week ... thank you for faithfully and generously remembering our poor brothers and sisters in this way!!

Do you have a special nativity scene that you'd like to share at the 3rd Annual Casa Creche Festival Dec. 17-18, 2022

If you would like to loan us your special nativity set for this event, or be involved in the festival, please email Norbert@thecasa.org. Maybe you'd like to volunteer for the event. Help will be needed to set up the displays and also to monitor the event which will be open to the public. Christmas is such an important part of the Franciscan story; we intend to celebrate it really well this year! Let us know if you'd like to help with this fun and very unique event.

FAMILY FAITH FORMATION

Reflecting on the Word as a Family - Luke 23: 35-43

Today, we celebrate Jesus Christ our King. It is interesting that on this day we read about the moments before his death, how he was mocked and humiliated, as we celebrate his kingship. Jesus is not the type of king that has lived his life in a palace and been served by others. He is the type of king that was born where animals live, worked throughout his life, served the sick and the poor, and then gruesomely died like a criminal. But Jesus then rose from the dead to bring us new life in him. This king lived like his people so that we may always know that whatever we are going through, whatever pain we are feeling, he understands. God allowed it all to happen because "God so loved the world that he gave his only Son" (John 3:16). What a king we have!

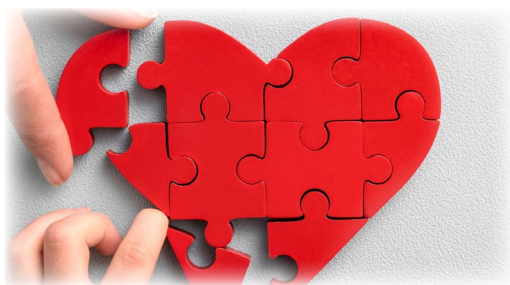

Discuss the Word as a Family

- On the way to Mass: Today, we celebrate Jesus as King of the Universe. What does that mean to you? What other names would you give Jesus?
- On the way home from Mass: How do you think Jesus felt as the rulers, soldiers, and one of the criminals sneered and mocked him? What kind of king does this story tell us Jesus is?

Living the Word as a Family

Provide blank paper and pencils or crayons and allow everyone in the family to draw a picture in response to today's Gospel. It doesn't have to be a picture only of this story but anything to ponder more what was read.

YOUNG ADULT MINISTRY

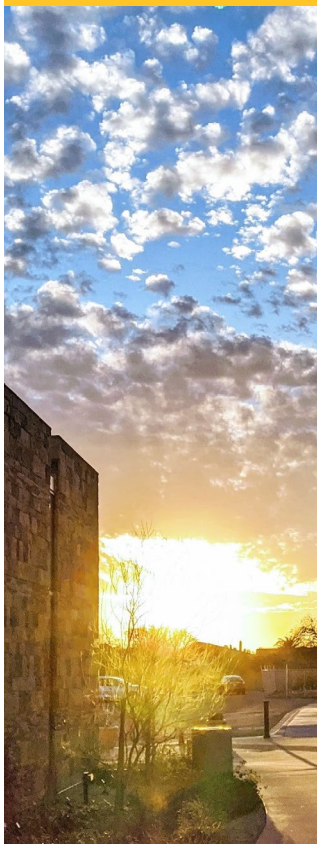

Annual Global Celebration of Young People

Pope Francis has asked the Church to take time each year to celebrate the young people in our communities. He chose this weekend, Christ the King Sunday, to do so annually. At the closing Mass of World Youth Day in 2019, Pope Francis addressed those in attendance saying, “You, dear young people, are not the future. We like to say, ‘you are the future.’ No, you are the present. You are not the future of God, you young people are the now of God. He invites you and calls you in your communities and cities to go out and find your grandparents, your elders; to stand up and with them to speak out and realize the dream that the Lord has dreamed for you.” (homily, 27 Jan, 2019)

Please take time this week to consider how you or our community might celebrate young people during the whole year. Here are a couple ideas. Last week's bulletin has two other suggestions as well.

- Encourage young people to grow in their relationship with Jesus Christ. Echoing Pope Francis, who tells young people to trust in the Lord, tell them, “[Christ] is in you, he is with you, and he never abandons you.” (Christus Vivit [CV] 2)
- Read and prayerfully reflect on Christus Vivit, Pope Francis’ landmark apostolic exhortation to and about youth and young adults, “since all of us are challenged and urged to reflect both on the young and for the young.” (CV3)
- Celebrate youth and young adults on Christ the King Sunday.

For Young Adult Ministry, contact Cheryl Hentz at chentz@thecasa.org

Thank YOU for Your Support of the St. Charles Apache School!

For years, Casa community members have chosen to support the St. Charles Catholic School on the San Carlos Apache Reservation. The school children ask for your continued support, which is required for the school to survive to educate some of America’s poorest children.

It’s a WIN-WIN

St. Charles qualifies for Arizona private school tax credit, so a contribution to the Catholic Tuition Support Organization (CTSO) is absolutely free. As we approach the end of the year, the students want to thank you for your past support by coming to the Casa the first weekend of December (December 3-4).

For each dollar contributed, you can receive a dollar back as a 2022 tax credit, up to $2,483 (married filing jointly) or $1,243 (single or head of household) as long as that does not exceed your tax liability.

It’s SIMPLE To Give

You can make your contribution by going to www.ctso-tucson.org and designating St. Charles Apache Mission School as the school of choice.

Details on making out a check will be provided on next week’s bulletin.

Contribution must be made by April 18, 2023 in order to receive tax credit. Questions can be directed to Paul Burgess, pburgess123@gmail.com

The Care for Creation Ministry is committed to promoting and educating the community on ways to be better stewards of God's creation, following Pope Francis' encyclical Laudato Si'. They have completed numerous projects around the Franciscan Renewal Center to lower its ecological footprint. Projects included: replacing nine old fridges with energy-efficient units, switching from Styrofoam cups to paper and plastic cups, adding weatherstrips in lodging rooms, and installing solar panels on the Assisi building. Beyond the Casa, the ministry grew, and members partnered with local ecological organizations to focus on outreach, environmental advocacy, and educational initiatives. The ministry has also worked with federal, state, and local representatives to establish goals to protect the environment.

Gary Yarwood was one of the founding members of the Care for Creation Ministry, which was formed in 2014. The Gary Yarwood Garden was created to honor all of his accomplishments through the ministry, as well as his stewarding spirit. The Garden was dedicated in his memory on November 14, 2020, nearly two years ago today. Gary was a man of commitment with a passion for creation. The ministry continues to follow in his example with his spirit of initiative and stewardship through education, advocacy, and direct service projects.

We invite you to be a part of this impactful ministry and learn more about upcoming events. Please consider joining the Leadership Team as they plan for the 2023 year. Email careforcreation@thecasa.org.

"Your gift to the Annual Appeal helps support this ministry and all the Good Works at the Casa. Please give to this year's Annual Appeal. Thank you."
