PASTORAL REFLECTION

I have heard the Gospel of the “Good Shepherd” in the past, perhaps similar to how you’ve heard it. This time, I thought about it differently with a more discerning, Franciscan voice in my head. A voice that encourages me to live the Gospel. A voice that asks me to be an imitation of Christ.

How good a shepherd am I?

Would I lay down my life for another? Do I have enough love and concern for another to place myself in their service? I am putting conditions on how far I would go...so maybe I still need to work on that.

When I see a sheep that is out on the margins, do I welcome them, and do I hold space for them so they can become part of this fold? Do I recognize the dignity of each individual and honor our interconnectedness? That is not always easy, so I keep practicing.

Do I love others with a divine and extraordinary love? Perhaps this is the greatest challenge. Paradoxically, it’s the easiest because there are an infinite number of opportunities like: nurturing personal relationships, providing care for my child or elderly parent, showing up for a friend or colleague. We can also show extraordinary love when we ask for forgiveness, show mercy, or offer others grace.

Jesus did not say, “I am the Best Shepherd.” I believe it’s because he is inviting me to follow his example. He is asking me to become a good shepherd too.

Mother's Day is coming up.

Mother's Day is in a few weeks, and we will remember and pray for our mothers who have given us life and love...for those who are with us as well as those who have left our sight and passed on. And we give thanks, for just as a loving mother generously provides for her children, so too does God watch over us.

To help us recognize and honor our mothers, you are invited to email us photographs of your mothers, living or deceased, and we'll include them in a slideshow before the Mass. The cut-off is May 6 to email us the photo for the slideshow. Send to rosa@thecasa.org.

May we honor our mothers always with a spirit of profound respect.

Strengthening the Church at Home

Next week, we will participate in the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. Right now, over 40 percent of dioceses in the US are considered "home missions" because they are unable to fund essential pastoral work needed in their communities. Your support of this appeal helps ease the struggle of these dioceses. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this appeal. More information can be found at www.usccb.org/home-missions.

Why do we join in these collections?

Once a month, we participate in some national and international special collections. Offering what we can to these special collections is a reminder that, as Catholics, we belong to a worldwide Church and helping others is an opportunity to show gratitude to God for the kindness we have been shown.

Upcoming special collections in 2024:

- Apr. 28 Catholic Home Missions
- May 12 Catholic Communications
- June 30 Peter's Pence
- July 14 Native American & Black Mission
- Aug. 11 Church in Africa, Latin America, and Eastern Europe
- Sep. 15 Catholic University
- Oct. 20 Mission Sunday
- Nov. 24 Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD)
- Dec. 8 Religious Retirement Fund

COMMUNITY CONNECTION

For us, it started with Rita Smith talking about the Casa's Art and Environment (A&E) Ministry and asking us to get involved. We owe her a debt of gratitude for that! It led us to be a part of A&E's leadership for the past 10 years.

The Casa's A&E team is made up of a group of dedicated volunteers who work collaboratively "behind the scenes," primarily helping with major seasonal decorating changes for Advent, Christmas, Lent, and Easter. Over the many years, our dedicated team has also become a community of dedicated friends, who not only work well together, but also enjoy doing it!

We bring our varying talents and skill sets together to support our common goal — crafters and craftsmen, designers and sewers, and movers and lifters. We've packed and unpacked yards of colored ribbon and fabrics, handcrafted sconces and bows, ornaments and lights, Christmas trees, garlands and wreaths, flags, candles, flowers and plants, and lots and lots of boxes! Hours of planning and work go into what we do, but we love using the elements of art to enhance the beauty of the Casa's liturgical environment and support the community's worship.

Looking forward, A&E could use some support with sewing and occasional flower care — and the men on our team would greatly appreciate expanding their group with additional volunteers who could join them in more physical efforts. Maybe this could be of interest to you?

A Casa Visioning Process

It has long been the tradition of the Franciscan Renewal Center to plan thoughtfully for the future of the Casa as a place for spiritual growth, healing and transformation, and service to others, as reflected in our Vision 25, which was completed in the early 2000s. This led to many significant developments over the years, including the construction of Our Lady of the Angels Church. The Board of Directors and the Casa staff will soon embark on a new 25-year Visioning exercise to form the aspirational basis for the 2026 -2030 Franciscan Renewal Center Strategic Plan. As part of that process, we invite ministries, volunteers, and the worship community to participate in our Visioning process over April and May.

Your participation in this process would entail a single 4-hour in-person group meeting with fellow members of the FRC community that will be held on-site at the Casa. We will shortly announce dates and times for those who feel compelled to engage in this aspirational process.

If you are interested in participating in this visioning process, please email: vision@thecasa.org.

About the Franciscan Renewal Center

The Franciscan Renewal Center (“the Casa”) is a place for spiritual growth, healing, and community that is open to everyone, regardless of faith. Activities at the Casa include:

- Weekday (Mon. – Fri.) and Weekend Masses at Our Lady of the Angels Church
- Meetings and conferences for religious and nonprofit groups
- Therapy, counseling, and support groups
- Education, retreats, and events
- Family faith formation and Young Adult ministry
- Volunteer ministries in service of the poor and vulnerable
- Spiritual direction

The Franciscan Renewal Center was founded as a Catholic retreat, called Casa de Paz y Bien (the Casa), by the Order of Friars Minor in 1951. It remains an active religious community that seeks to follow in the footsteps of Saints Francis and Clare of Assisi. The Casa works cooperatively with the Diocese of Phoenix.
