PASTORAL REFLECTION

The Passion according to Luke is not just a story to be read—it is a path to be walked. Unlike those of us who will perform a dramatic reading at Palm Sunday Mass, Jesus didn't get to rehearse his lines or pretend to be in agony. The burden he carried was real—physical, emotional, spiritual.

And he bore it all for us.

Jesus accepted being abandoned, denied, mocked, tortured, and killed. And still, he walked forward. He broke bread with the one who would betray him. He prayed for strength even as he sweated blood. He had just been nailed to the cross, and still, he prayed: "Father, forgive them." Even in that moment—wounded, humiliated, abandoned—his first instinct was mercy.

As we listen to the Passion today, we are invited to walk the via dolorosa—the way of sorrow—with him. If we think of it as a prayer, it becomes a chance to enter more deeply into the mystery of God's love for us.

We may find ourselves in different places along the way: denying, doubting, grieving, or simply watching from a distance. But Jesus meets us there. He carries the weight of our weakness and keeps going.

Can we offer him help along the way? A bit of encouragement? A small act of compassion? A willingness to carry someone else's burden for awhile?

May this Passion draw us closer to the heart of Christ. Let us thank him. And let us try to lighten his load by remembering that everyone carries Christ within them—and every person's burden is heavy.

Holy Week and The Easter Triduum

The liturgies this week have an honored place in our Christian identity, marking the summit of the Liturgical Year. The Easter Triduum spans from Holy Thursday evening to Easter Sunday evening. Though three days chronologically, liturgically it unfolds as one, revealing the unity of Christ's Paschal Mystery. Join us as we remember and celebrate our faith.

Holy Thursday's Mass of the Lord's Supper at 7 pm is the only Mass that day. The footwashing expresses Jesus' clear command: "As I have done, so you must do," urging us to recommit to serving others as Christ served us.

At noon on Good Friday, the Casa community brings the Stations of the Cross to life. At 3 pm, the Celebration of the Lord's Passion includes the proclamation of the Passion according to St. John and the Veneration of the Cross.

On Holy Saturday, the Easter Vigil begins at 8 pm, where the Holy Spirit hovers over the font, and the community celebrates Jesus' passage from death to life. This night shines with fire, processions, music, Alleluias, bread, wine, sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and First Eucharist — truly, a Great Feast!

Stewardship: A Grateful Response to God's Blessings

Have you stopped to reflect on the many ways God has blessed your life this week? Perhaps it's through the love of family, the gift of faith, or the grace of a community that walks with you on your journey. Here at Our Lady of the Angels, we are truly blessed—with the Eucharist to nourish us, the friars to guide us, and the mission of the Franciscan Renewal Center to renew our hearts.

Dutch priest and theologian, Henri Nouwen reminds us, "Gratitude flows from the recognition that all we are and have is a gift from God." When we see our lives through this lens, generosity becomes more than a duty—it becomes a joyful response to God's love. The International Catholic Stewardship Council teaches that true stewardship is not about giving what is left over, but about offering our first and best to God, trusting in Divine Providence.

How has God worked in your life through the Casa? Have you found healing in the sacraments? Have the friars offered you wisdom and encouragement? Has a retreat deepened your faith? If this place has been a blessing to you, prayerfully consider how you might give back. Whether through your time, talents, or treasure, your generosity allows this sacred mission to continue.

Stewardship is more than support—it is a way of living our faith. May we, as disciples of Christ, respond with open hearts, knowing that when we give, we are truly receiving the grace of God.

Join me this month as I share more on stewardship. Questions? Let's connect for a cup of coffee or tea. Email me at christopher@thecasa.org or call 480.355.5634.

A free event for young adults only (registration required)

*Presented by
Dr. Massimo Faggioli of Villanova University*

Spirituality in Pints (SiPs) is an evening of good food, drink, and fellowship at a local bar with others just like you who want to learn more about their faith and discuss the issues that matter. Young adult Catholics and non-Catholics from ages 18-39; single, married, or dating; practicing or searching; all young adults are welcome!

This evening's featured topic is Pope Francis' newest encyclical Dilexit Nos (He Loved Us) and how it inspires us to be "pilgrims of hope" (Jubilee '25).

Registration deadline is
Wednesday, April 23 at 5 pm.

Questions?
Email victor@thecasa.org.

Don't Forget to Drop Off Your Almsgiving Envelope!

COMMUNITY CONNECTION

Sustain Our Mission with a Recurring Gift

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ, We are truly blessed at Our Lady of the Angels Church! More than a place of worship, our community is a spiritual family—a sacred place where we encounter Christ in the Holy Eucharist, grow in faith, and extend God’s love to those in need.

You bring hope, healing, and renewal to our community every day. Yet, this mission is only possible because of your faithful stewardship. Like many faith communities, we experience seasonal shifts in giving—especially in the summer months when travel and changing routines take many away. Yet, the Church’s mission never pauses.

Will you prayerfully consider starting or increasing your recurring gift today?

By setting up a recurring gift, you help sustain:

Vibrant Worship—where the Holy Eucharist remains at the heart of our church, enriching lives through liturgy, sacred music, and prayer.

Outreach & Service—bringing Christ’s love to those in need through pastoral care and social justice ministries.

Faith Formation—nurturing souls through sacramental preparation, retreats, and lifelong spiritual growth.

Church Stability—ensuring we meet essential needs, like our $4,200 monthly utility bill in order to keep our church cool, lights on, and water running.

Your recurring gift, no matter the amount, is a commitment to Christ’s mission—providing ongoing support that strengthens our church, allows us to serve others with compassion and grace and quickly respond to any emergency.

Setting up your gift is simple, secure, and flexible:

1. Scan the QR code:
2. Visit www.thecasa.org/ola
3. Call our Development Team at 480.355.0345

Thank you for being a vital part of our church family. May God bless you abundantly for your faithfulness and generosity!

—Christopher Meyer, Development Director

About the Franciscan Renewal Center

The Franciscan Renewal Center is a place for spiritual growth, healing, and community that is open to everyone, regardless of faith. Activities include:

- Weekday (Mon. – Fri.) and Weekend Masses at Our Lady of the Angels Church
- Meetings and conferences for religious and nonprofit groups
- Therapy, counseling, and support groups
- Education, retreats, and events
- Family faith formation and Young Adult ministry
- Volunteer ministries, including those in service of the poor and vulnerable
- Spiritual direction

The Franciscan Renewal Center (the Casa) was founded in 1951 by the Order of Friars Minor as a Catholic retreat, called Casa de Paz y Bien. It remains an active religious community that seeks to follow in the footsteps of Saints Francis and Clare of Assisi. The Casa works cooperatively with the Diocese of Phoenix.
