Helloooooo? Can you hear me? What about now? Can you hear me now? Have you had that experience with your cell phone?

In the readings today, we hear a few stories of calls. Throughout Scripture, we hear stories of how God calls to us in unexpected ways. How have you experienced God's call in your life? Was it a one-time thing — or do you hear God's persistent calls?

For Samuel, it was his whispered name he heard in the night while sleeping, and he didn't quite understand who was calling. He was then trained to listen for God's voice and was taught how to respond when he would hear it.

For Saul, the call came quite dramatically in broad daylight while traveling to persecute Christians in Damascus. He was blinded by a bright light, and he fell to the ground. In this sudden blindness, he heard a voice instructing him what to do next. Saul (Paul) went on to become one of the greatest missionaries, preaching across the Roman Empire. In today's 2nd reading, he preaches to us about our bodies being temples of the Holy Spirit.

The disciples in the Gospel each felt a call to follow Jesus, and we will know how they responded to Jesus' invitation.

Our journey as Christians requires active listening — and responding — to God's voice throughout our lives. Ordinary Time provides ample opportunity for listening. Can you hear God's calling?

The work of Christmas begins...

Last Monday was the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, which marked the conclusion of the Christmas season. Retail stores have had Valentine's Day and St. Patrick's Day things out for weeks, but the Church celebrates the Nativity of Jesus through this feast.

There is a brief poem by Howard Thurman that comes to mind as the Christmas season reaches its last day, titled "The Work of Christmas".

*When the song of the angels is stilled,
When the star in the sky is gone,
When the kings and princes are home,
When the shepherds are back with their flock,
The work of Christmas begins:*

*To find the lost, to heal the broken,
to feed the hungry, to release the prisoner,
to rebuild the nations,
to bring peace among all people,
to make music from the heart.*

With hearts full of love, let us begin again.

Winter Ordinary Time

Today is the second Sunday in Ordinary Time. "Ordinary Time," meaning ordered or numbered time, is not a season like Lent and Advent, nor does it have a set number of days or weeks: it is composed of either thirty-three or thirty-four weeks. It is an ordering of Sundays whose number depends on the date of Easter, as well as those Sundays that are superseded by any solemnities that fall on a Sunday in each year. Ordinary Time during the winter includes those days that fall between the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord and Ash Wednesday. In fact, the day after the Baptism of the Lord begins the First Week in Ordinary Time; hence the following Sunday is the Second Sunday in Ordinary Time.

The rhythm of the liturgical seasons reflects the rhythm of life — with its celebrations of anniversaries and its seasons of quiet growth and maturing. If we are to mature in the spiritual life and increase in faith, we must descend the great mountain peaks of Christmas and Easter in order to "pasture" in the vast verdant meadows of Ordinary Time.

Winter residents – have you registered as members of the Casa community? Or, has your contact information changed?

If you are a resident in Arizona during the winter months, we invite you to consider registering formally as a member of the community of Our Lady of the Angels. The information that is collected on our registration form is helpful to us in serving you. You can find the form in the Narthex, or ask at the Guest Services Desk.

We would love to be informed if you move, change phone numbers, switch email addresses, etc. This way we can be sure we have the most up-to-date information, and you will not miss anything from us! To update any of your contact information — phone, address, or email address — please call or email any member of the Casa staff listed below.

Living the Liturgical Year is an ongoing series sponsored by Casa Faith Formation that invites participants to live out their faith beyond Sunday Mass. Each workshop is designed to unpack the major seasons and feast days on the Church calendar to deepen our faith and spirituality through increased understanding of practices and traditions.

Join us for this next hands-on workshop where you will learn:

- History of Mardi Gras, Lent & Holy Week
- The origins of the prayers, blessings, and spiritual practices that are a part of this season.
- Beautiful ways to share our faith with others around us.

There will be hands-on activities, plus food and drinks to sample!

Just Scripture All are welcome.

WORD OF GOD Sunday is celebrated on January 21. Pope Francis reminds us the Bible “is the book of the Lord’s people, who, in listening to it, move from division towards unity.”

In this New Year, do you take time to pause, pray with, and discuss the Word of God? Would you like to? Find out more about how you can with Just Scripture.

We consider biblical issues of justice and mercy that impact our world today and talk about how the Sunday readings connect with daily life. Discussed from a perspective of Franciscan values, Just Scripture (JS) occurs on Zoom on the second Saturday of each month, 10 – 11:30 am.

Find out more. Speak with Representatives.
January 20 and 21 after all Masses.

SolidariTea for Interfaith Peace

Wednesday, February 7 5 – 6:30 pm, Fee: $10

Engage in facilitated dialogue and lively conversation with folks of different faith traditions. This event takes place during World Interfaith Harmony Week (as recognized by the United Nations). Share your story with others on how you found your faith.

Tea and snacks will be provided. A special Taizé Prayer for Interfaith Peace & Unity will follow at the Our Lady of the Angels Church at 7 pm.

COMMUNITY CONNECTION

Have you ever entertained angels? We have! It began at a yard sale we were having back in 1998 in Prior Lake, MN, as we prepared to move to Strawberry, AZ. Two women stopped in, mostly wondering where we were moving. When I told them near Phoenix, AZ, we were met with lots of enthusiasm for a place simply called “the Casa.”

Once we moved to Strawberry, we spent countless hours searching for a faith community. One day, I realized we hadn’t been down to the Casa. Since we lived so far away, we opted to go to the 11:00 Mass. After just one Mass, we were hooked! Before long, we met the nicest man, Sam Rogers, who was then in charge of all the hospitality ministries. Sam found a place for us even though we couldn’t travel down every weekend.

After 15 years, we left Arizona for Maine to be near our son, Dirk, and his family. After three years, we decided to move back to sunny AZ, to Sun City. Our first weekend here, we returned to the one place we missed the most — the Casa. We were thrilled to be in Our Lady of the Angels Church after it was completed. What a wonderful coincidence after meeting the angels in MN who told us about the Casa!

We are now hospitality ministers at the 9:15 Masses. Ray also helps take up the collection, and ushers people during communion (since I am in a wheelchair due to Parkinson’s disease, I don’t participate in these ministries). We are so blessed for our angels who led us to be a part of “the Casa” community — our “home” away from home.

About the Franciscan Renewal Center

The Franciscan Renewal Center (“the Casa”) is a place for spiritual growth, healing, and community that is open to everyone, regardless of faith. Activities at the Casa include:

- Weekday (Mon. - Fri.) and Weekend Masses at Our Lady of the Angels Church
- Meetings and conferences for religious and nonprofit groups
- Therapy, counseling, and support groups
- Education, retreats, and events
- Family faith formation and Young Adult ministry
- Volunteer ministries in service of the poor and vulnerable
- Spiritual direction

The Franciscan Renewal Center was founded as a Catholic retreat, called Casa de Paz y Bien (the Casa), by the Order of Friars Minor in 1951. It remains an active religious community that seeks to follow in the footsteps of Saints Francis and Clare of Assisi. The Casa works cooperatively with the Diocese of Phoenix.
